

The big providers charge too much for some of the poorer people to afford internet service. $30 and $40 is robbery for the little I use the internet. SWB's prices get past $50 a month which is, in my opinion, robbing people of money they can hardly afford to waste. The internet should be for all; not just those who have money to waste.